GOES BEFORE GRAND JURY

Judge Rufus M. Potts on Witness Stand for Several Hours.

Other Witnesses Supoenaed—
Dinwiddie Investigation May Last Several Days.

The grand jury resumed its investigation of the settlement of the Dinwiddie estate at 9:30 this morning. At that time, Judge Rufus M. Potts, of Taylorsville, Ill., who is acting for the heirs, who are behind the investigation, was called into the room where he remained until the noon adjournment. At 1 o'clock the jury again convened and Ex-county Commissioner Sisson was called. At 3 o'clock this afternoon he was still in the grand jury room. After he was dismissed Attorney Potts was again called. He will leave for his home in Taylorsville tonight, business matters needing his attention, making it imperative that he should return at once.

Judge Potts was expected here Saturday, but important business kept him away from Rushville until today. Mr. Potts, it will be remembered, with the assistance of several stenographers, some three months ago, made a complete transcript of all of the records concerning the Dinwiddie estate.

Although the nature of Mr. Potts' testimony before the grand jury could not be learned, when seen this afternoon, he stated that in going over the records, connected with the settlement of the estate, he had found many "gross irregularities in the method of procedure." What these were he declined to say.

He did say, however, that he had found on the records nothing to show where some $36,000 had been expended.

Judge Potts declined to talk further than what the records show. He did say, however, that he had some outside evidence, the nature of which he would not disclose, that sustained the rumors of crooked transactions, which it is alleged were made in the settlement of the estate.

Judge Potts stated that there were thirteen original heirs. Seven and one-half of these heirs are behind the present investigation. Mrs. Elam is a part of one of these heirs. She and her brothers and sisters were paid collectively $3600.

There has been some discussion as to whether or not the bill, giving the county commissioners power to set aside the deed to the farm which bill was "railroaded" it is alleged through the State legislature, was a constitutional one. Concerning this point, Judge Potts holding the interests of his clients at heart, would not talk.

Mr. Potts has submitted to the grand jury all of his memorandum and data regarding the case. He holds that the county commissioners as far as he can see, had no right to relinquish the trust conveyed to them in Maria Dinwiddie's will.

At the time the commissioners let go of the farm, it appeared to be yielding the county a considerable sum of money annually and was undoubtedly a money making proposition.

County Commissioner Sisson, it will be remembered, refused to take part in the transaction which lost the farm to the county. His testimony, it is thought, will have considerable bearing upon the case.

Judge Potts says that in some of the records concerning the settlement of the estate, the proceedings are grossly irregular and he says that as there are no figures in the court records and administrator's report is missing, it is impossible to tell just how the final disposition of the estate was made. Parties who were connected with the estate say that the last time this report was seen it was in the hands of an attorney who was making an investigation of the records in behalf of the heirs.

Mr. Potts and his client seem to think that the present investigation will bear some fruit. Regarding this point Mr. Potts said: "As yet the investigation is but a little flower. We must water it and care for it and, of course, we expect it to grow." Whether or not any criminal action will result from the grand jury's investigation cannot be foretold at this time. Some people are of the opinion that it will, while others are inclined to the other view. At any rate, Judge Potts hinted that civil action would certainly follow.

The grand jury's investigation is likely to last several days. Among the witnesses whom Prosecutor Kiplinger says have been subpoenaed are: Thomas M. Green, Owen L. Carr, Frank Mull, Wallace Morgan, Samuel Innis, Judge Will M. Sparks and others. It is possible that more of the heirs will also be called upon.

MAY NOT BUILD ON OLD SITE

C., H. & D. Agents Pricing
Property for Location of New Depot.

J. A. Osborne, local freight agent for the C. H. & D. was at work today, pricing the property on the south side of the railroad from Main to Morgan and from Morgan to Harrison, with a view toward ascertaining the probable expense of locating the new C. H. & D. depot at some point between the streets mentioned. It is known that the C. H. & D. is desirous of building some where along this route, providing ground may be purchased reasonably.

Superintendent Whittenberger of the local division, was in the city this morning and said that if property between Main and Harrison streets could not be purchased reasonably the road would build upon the old site. The plans for the new depot have been completed. It will be built of brick and will be roofed with red tile.

Jesse Ratliff, of Chattanooga, Tenn., who has been visiting his brother, Will Ratliff and family went to Knightstown today for a short visit with relatives and friends there.

Thomas Geraghty has returned from a visit with his brother Lawrence, who has been confined to the hospital at West Point with lung trouble for the past two months. Lawrence is now able to be up and around and may be sent home for a short time on sick leave.

THEY ATTRACTED MUCH ATTENTION

Dick Wilson's Patchen Boy Colts
Praised by Western Horseman.

This week's Western Horseman has the following to say of the performance of Dick Wilson's Patchen Boy colts at the State fair: One of the features of the Indiana State fair racing program was the two special races for Patchen Boy colts. Dick Wilson & Son, the owners of Patchen Boy, offered two $200 purses for colts by their great sir, and the showing made by these youngsters attracted a great deal of attention.

The race for two-year-olds was won by Jerry Patchen, after losing the opening heat to Lewis Patchen, who took a record of 2:30. Then Jerry Patchen won the next two heats, taking a record of 2:29 1/4, and was capable of stepping several seconds faster.

The race for three-year-olds was won by Lady Patchen in straight heats, stepping each of them in 2:29 1/4. Lady Patchen showed herself to be a high class young trotter, and had she been asked to do so could have stepped better than 2:25.

These youngsters are elegantly formed, of good color and finely gaited, and all have extreme speed. They show that they have been carefully and skillfully handled by Mart Wilson, who has had charge of them.

WAS A RUSH COUNTY BOY

Col. I. M. Walker Who Died at Indianapolis Was Born in Center Township.

Col. Ivan N. Walker, one of the best known members of the Grand Army of the Republic, not only in Indiana, but throughout the Union, who died Friday morning a few minutes before 2 o'clock, at his apartments in the Victoria flats, at Indianapolis, was a Rush county boy. His funeral took place at Indianapolis this forenoon. Private services were held at the house, but at Crown Hill cemetery where the burial took place, the services were conducted by George H. Thomas Post, G. A. R. of Indianapolis.

Colonel Walker was born on what is now known as the John Kirkpatrick farm in Center township, February 3d, 1839. At the outbreak of the civil war he volunteered as a private and was made a captain in the 73d Regiment, Indiana Volunteer Infantry.

For gallant service at Stone River, he was made a major and promoted to the rank of lieutenant-colonel. In May, 1863, he was made a colonel and commander of the 73d Indiana.

In 1892 he was a candidate on the Republican ticket for Auditor of State, but was defeated with the remainder of the ticket. Later he became State tax commissioner for the Pennsylvania railroad company.

At the Louisville encampment of the National G. A. R. he was elected commander-in-chief for one year. At the time of his death he was assistant adjutant-general of the Indiana department of the G. A. R., chairman of the board of regents of the Indiana Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument and prominent as member of the Loyal Legion.

Col. Walker was well known among the veterans and aged residents of the county, and some of his old friends attended the burial service today.

day.

The local base ball team met defeat Sunday at the hands of Shelbyville in that city, by a score of 3 to 2. Dugan pitched masterly ball and for six innings held Shelbyville without allowing a hit. For five innings the score was 2 to 0 in favor of Rushville, two runs being scored in the third inning. Shelbyville, however, tied the score in the sixth and scored the winning run in the seventh. Halterman pitched for Shelbyville.

HIGH SCHOOL WAS DEFEATED

Carthage Nationals Won Saturday's Foot Ball Game by Score of 11 to 0.

The high school foot ball team met defeat Saturday afternoon in its game with the Carthage Nationals, the latter winning by a score of 11 to 0.

No scores were made until the latter part of the second half when Carthage on two long end runs, and repeated onslaughts at Rushville's line, carried the ball over the line for a touchdown. Coffin failed to kick goal.

After about five minutes more of play, Carthage carried the ball over for another touchdown, after repeated gains through the line. Coffin kicked goal. The game ended with the ball in Carthage's territory and in Rushville's possession.

Captain Stiers of the local team was laid out of the game in the second half with an injured leg from which he has nearly recovered.

TO FORECLOSE MECHANIC'S LIEN

Pinnell et al, of This City, File
Suit Against Connersville Man.

Suit was brought in the Fayette circuit court Saturday morning by Julius Pinnell et al., of this city, through their attorney, Samuel L. Trabue, to foreclose a mechanic's lien of $178.42 against Geo. H. Beaver et al., of Fayette county. The suit was brought through Pinnell & Tompkins, and the allegations in the complaint are to the effect that the defendants had purchased lumber from them in the year 1903 to the extent of $187.42, and on which the amount of only $9.00 had been paid. For that reason the suit is brought to cover their claim in the amount and also ask judgment for an additional $20 for attorney's fees. The defendants in the case are well-known residents of Fayette county.

IS ARRESTED ON SEVERAL CHARGES

Age Long Creates Disturbance and is Placed in Jail Saturday Night.

Saturday night about eight o'clock policeman Vansickle arrested Age Long, a plasterer, at the Gilson boarding house on South Morgan street, where, it was claimed, he, while intoxicated, had insulted two young women, chased them with a butcher knife, and used a large amount of profane language. Long was placed in jail and this morning he was taken before Mayor Hall, who fined him for intoxication. Long paid the fine and went to work. His actions, it is said, will be brought before the grand jury tomorrow for investigation.

Miss Jane Danner, of Newton, Kansas, died on September 17th at the age of seventy-three. Miss Danner was born in Rush county, but spent most of her life at or near Olathe, Kansas. Her brother, S. T. Danner, who has the postoffice book store at Newton, Kansas, is the only surviving member of this former Rush county family.

FIRST DAY'S ENROLLMENT

Of the Schools in the County
Show a Loss of 83 Over Last Year.

Reports from the teachers giving the first day's enrollment in the schools of the county, outside of Rushville and Carthage, show a total of 2021, which is 83 less than the first day's enrollment last year. This is not as encouraging as might be expected, though certain local conditions account for much of the shortage. Moreover, many additional pupils are known to have entered on the second and the third days of school. This leaves yet some 15 per cent of the pupils out of school who should be in.

It is very evident that our schools cannot accomplish their fullest purpose until this other 15 per cent. is in the schools from the first. Many parents who are good friends of education make a serious mistake in reasoning that a week or two lost at the beginning of school is a very small matter. No other week is so important to the child, unless it be the last week; besides, to have a pupil enter when the school is in good running order, is not the most desirable to the teacher, for it inevitably causes more or less disorganization, which means loss to the school.

If education is a good thing—and no one will doubt it—it is highly important that the pupils get the benefit of every day's schooling that the corporation affords. Parents who really need their children at home, by making some sacrifices, may get them in school, and a more important opportunity cannot come to the parent.

The present truant officer, Daniel M. Kinney, is very conscientious of his duty and intends to enforce the truancy law. Teachers and others who know of truants are therefore requested to notify him of the same.

Following is the report by townships of the first day's enrollment this year and last with the gain and loss in each case:

THE TERMINAL TO BE CHANGED

The Michigan Division of the Big Four to End at Greensburg.

The Greensburg Review of Thursday says: From good authority and the latest reports in railroad circles it is understood that when the new passenger station with the new yards and new coal docks have been completed, the terminal on the Michigan division which for more than a year now has been at Anderson will be moved back to Greensburg. The terminal, said a prominent railroad man would never have been moved away from Greensburg the last time if there had been sufficient track room in the yards here to accommodate the trains that were compelled to lay over here, and now since the company have taken initiatory steps toward relieving the congested condition of things here it is likely that the change of terminal will be made.

—Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Darnell and Mr. and Mrs. John E. Hume, who for the past three weeks have been enjoying a tour of Colorado, will arrive in this city at 6 o'clock Tuesday.

—Dr. and Mrs. W. D. Hancock, of Millsville, O., spent Sunday in this city with Uncle John Oliver, Mrs. Belle Cosand and other relatives and friends.

SCHEPMAN GETS $12,500 FOR LEG

Richmond Man Wins Big Damage Suit Against Pennsylvania Lines.

The sum of $12,500 is the valuation placed on a leg by the jury at New Castle, which heard the famous damage suit against the Pennsylvania, instituted by George W. Schepman, of Richmond, in the Wayne circuit court and venue to Henry county for trial.

It took the jury two and a half hours to reach this conclusion. One of the jurymen was in favor of awarding Schepman a judgment of $5000, while another one wanted to give him $35,000. It took nearly two hours to reach a verdict. When the first ballot was taken all jurymen with the exception of one were in favor of awarding damages. Schepman fell under a train at Richmond some time ago and lost a leg.

LOADS WAGONS IN SHORT TIME

Modern Methods in Grading Camps Differ Greatly from Former Times.

Crowds Flock Along Grade of Connersville Extension to Watch Machines Work.

Saturday's Connersville Examiner says: The work on the traction line, west of the city is daily attracting more curious onlookers. The weather during the past few days has been very favorable to the work while on the other hand it has also been favorable for driving, and this has taken hundreds of people to the active scenes between Big and Little Williams creeks.

There are three different gangs at work within five miles of the city, and the amount of dirt they are tearing up is marvelous. The grading will be finished, it is said, long before the bridges are ready. In fact, if the weather remains favorable the grading will be finished within a few weeks.

The methods adopted in the work are vastly different from those used a few years ago in such undertakings. In those days a hundred men and as many horses with shovels, scrapers, picks, etc., could not accomplish a third as much work as can half the number of men as they work nowadays.

The work of excavation is done entirely by either horse or steam power. This great machine is so arranged that it plows the dirt out of the earth, and it is then sent up to the top of the machine like straw out of a separator. It requires just fifteen seconds to load a wagon holding two yards.

The ordinary gravel bed holds but one yard. One load per minute is the average all day long as some time is lost by the clogging of the machine and the getting away and arrival of loaded and unloaded wagons. The wagons are so arranged that they may be dumped without stopping the team, by the pulling of a lever, which allows "the bottom to fall out."

The work is hard and very trying on the horses and men. In spite of this fact, however, the best humor seems to prevail about the camp and the scene of the work. There was no cursing nor the use of such language as one might expect about such a place. The boss on the job was asked if they worked on Sunday. He replied, "No, the men and the horses both need the rest. In extreme cases we have worked on Sunday, but we have always doubted if we really made any head way at it. We may have to work on Sunday on this job, but hope not."

About the camp everything has a clean and orderly appearance.

INTERESTING RIVALRY

Friendly Contest for State Chairmanship Grows Apace.

Indianapolis, Sept. 25.—George A. H. Shideler of Marion, candidate for chairman of the Republican state committee, has headquarters at the Columbia club, where he is spending two or three days meeting the politicians and looking after his interests. It is said that Shideler resents the insinuations occasionally made that he will "take to the woods" when Chairman Goodrich and his friends get after him properly, as they promise to do in due time. He is protesting to nearly everyone he talks with about the chairmanship that he will go the limit, even if he only has one district with him. A prominent politician said today that Attorney General Miller is as deeply interested as anyone in Shideler's candidacy, as Shideler is for him for governor. The Miller men, he declared, are afraid that the re-election of Goodrich as chairman would help the candidacy of U. S. Hunt for governor.

Word has been received that J. Knox Taylor, supervising architect of the treasury department, will arrive here Wednesday or Thursday, clothed with authority by Secretary Shaw to settle the controversy relative to a location for the monument to be erected in honor of the late President Benjamin Harrison. Unless the monument commission agrees to build a simple base that will conform to the architecture of the new federal building, it will not be permitted to build the monument there. Mr. Taylor will recommend that the monument be erected on the east side of University Park, where Mr. Harrison made many of his famous speeches during his presidential campaigns. Senator Beveridge has refused to be drawn into the controversy on the ground that the government has agents who are capable of settling it.

Senator Albert J. Beveridge has returned from Lake Wauwassee, Ind., where he was the guest of Hugh J. McGowan and other Indianapolis men for a couple of days. The visit was purely of a social nature. The senator expects to remain in Indianapolis until a few days before the convening of congress in December. Anticipating another hard winter's fight over the statehood bill, he is refusing all invitations to deliver speeches during the next few weeks, as he wants to be thoroughly rested before he goes to Washington. His book, "The Young Man and the World," will be given to the public about the first week of October.

There is apparently less interest here at present than there has been in a city campaign for several years. Bookwalter's opponents say it means the voters want to let well enough alone and re-elect Holtzman, but the Bookwalter men regard it as a good omen.

Indiana Chinaman Finds Himself Across the Line.

Terre Haute, Ind., Sept. 25.—Pong Bow, who has been a resident of Terre Haute for fifteen years, may never be permitted to return to the United States, since he inadvertently stepped over the boundary line between the United States and Canada. Congressman Holliday has been notified by Commissioner of Immigration Sargent that he cannot find any provision in the Chinese exclusion act that can be violated sufficiently to give Pong Bow permission to return to the United States.

Having a Good Time.

Seoul, Sept. 25.—Miss Alice Roosevelt and party Sunday attended the athletic sports of Japanese school-boys. The party was received by the Japanese educational committee. The entire party is now resting after the strenuous weeks spent in Japan, Manila and China. The visit is largely losing an official character and the party will spend some time at picnicking and riding in the hills of Seoul and vicinity.

Evansville, Ind., Sept. 25.—Thelma Timberlake, aged five, while playing about a bonfire was fatally burned.

A BIG CONSPIRACY

New York Contractors Said to Be Under Uncle Sam's Eye.

CONTRACT LABOR LAW

In the Evasion of this Restriction Employers Are Said to Have Crossed the Government's Path.

After Eight Months of Preparation the Authorities Are Now Ready to Take Action.

New York, Sept. 25.—After eight months of careful preparation the United States district attorney of this district will today, according to reliable authority, cause the arrest of eleven heads of manufacturing and contracting concerns of this city, on warrants charging them with having conspired, through the medium of an employers' association, to violate the contract labor law by the importation of foreign workmen. The penalty of conviction is a fine of not less than $1,000 nor more than $10,000, or imprisonment for not more than two years.

It is understood that the department of commerce and labor is directing the prosecution and has, through its own agents, assisted by operators of the secret service prepared the case against the accused. This has involved many months of investigation and also the keeping since January last of four men, English tile setters, at Ellis Island. It is upon the evidence of these four men, backed by an array of corroborative depositions, that the government chiefly relies.

The evidence in the case goes back to the lookout by the Tile, Grate and Mantel association, an employers' organization, of the mosaic and encaustic tile layers and helpers of New York and vicinity on Aug. 6 of last year. To make the lookout a success it is charged that the employers' association sent one of its number to England and caused advertisements to appear in papers in England and Germany, offering tile masons $5 per day for eight hours labor in the United States.

Fifty workmen, it is alleged, were imported to the United States at the instance of the eleven accused men, and were instructed to swear falsely when questioned at Ellis Island by the immigration officials, as to their reasons for coming to America, and especially to swear that they had as yet no employment in this country. It is also said that the men were furnished with the address of one of the accused and ordered to report to him.

Two weeks after the men were imported the lookout being a success, it is alleged, the accused caused the English workmen to be discharged on the ground that they were not familiar with American tools or the method of working in this country, and were therefore, useless. Some of these men got home as best they could, but four of them carried their grievances to agents of the department of commerce and labor and rendered information on which the present investigation is based.

Hostile Factions in the Caucasus Agree to Be Good.

Baku, Sept. 25.—A conference of the representatives of the Armenians and Tartars under the presidency of Prince Louis Napoleon, governor general of the Caucasus, has just been concluded, during which the principal conditions of an entente were agreed upon. The conference decided to summon a general congress representing the inhabitants of the Caucasus to meet in October for the purpose of considering the causes of the enmity existing between the Tartars and the Armenians; resolved to urge upon the government the necessity for the adoption of prompt measures to ensure the safety of life and property, and arranged that Armenians and Tartars shall become mutually responsible for all material damage in the event of massacre or pillage by either side until January, 1907. Ten Armenians and ten Mussulmans, all very wealthy, undertook to guarantee the strict observance of the agreement.

The conference also resolved to form an arbitration court to consist of five Armenians and five Tartars, which will draft the details of the agreement and remove any difficulties that may arise. The agreement will become effective Oct. 14.

A preliminary peace agreement between the Tartars and the Armenians was signed Sunday.

Lineman Electrocuted.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 25.—Jesse Donahue of Minneapolis and Harry Ripson of Cuba, Mo., members of a gang of telephone linemen constructing a line between St. Paul and Stillwater, were electrocuted Sunday. Ripson was at the top of a pole holding a measuring tape while Donahue on the ground held the other end. The tape line was of linen, but had running through it two slender wires. It came in contact with a heavily charged power cable and both men received the full force of the current, killing them instantly. Ripson fell from the top of the pole and his neck was broken.

HOW HE FOUND IT

Interesting Rumor Concerning Sherrick's Alleged Gambling Losses.

TELL-TALE CHECK BOOK

It Is Related That Stubs of Book Turned Over to the State Carried Their Own Evidence.

Many Checks it Is Said Were Issued in Favor of "French Lick Brown."

Indianapolis, Sept. 25.—It is rumored today that Governor Hanly's first intimation about Sherrick's alleged losses at French Lick was from the tell-tale stubs of his checkbook, which was turned over by John Reed, settlement clerk in the auditor's office, along with the securities in which Sherrick had invested. These stubs, it is said, show that Sherrick cashed many checks in favor of Al Brown, better known as "French Lick" Brown, who until recently controlled the privileges at the French Lick casino where the governor says Sherrick gambled away nearly $10,000. The governor very evidently believes that Sherrick lost to Brown the amounts those stubs show. Governor Hanly first learned of Sherrick's shortage on Aug. 23, the day the tax board adjourned. He immediately called him to his office and demanded a settlement within twenty-four hours. Sherrick settled between the 24th and 26th of the month, but he took one fund to pay another, and the governor on Sept. 4 demanded his resignation by the 15th. In the meantime the governor forced Sherrick to turn over to Reed all of the securities, and on the morning of the day Sherrick resigned the governor obtained through Reed the securities and other papers belonging to the ex-auditor. The checkbook with the tell-tale stubs is said to have been among the papers, so it is possible that the governor did not suspect Sherrick of being a heavy gambler till then. Sherrick, it is understood, will try to prove that he secured the money from Brown by check to pay other obligations that fell due while he was at French Lick in 1903 for his health.

NEW PLAN ARRANGED

Hospital Site at Madison Subject to a Change.

Madison, Ind., Sept. 25.—Governor Hanly and the commission to locate the new southeastern Indiana insane hospital were in the city Saturday. North Madison has agreed to make the improvements required and the Pennsylvania company is to build switches, a power house, etc.

The commission, however, has selected 360 acres on slightly different lines from the original proposition, and the local committee will be given until Oct. 15 to meet the new conditions, which will doubtless be satisfactorily settled before that time. The governor and party held a public reception at the Madison hotel Saturday night and left Sunday morning for Indianapolis.

The time will be devoted to lectures part of the day and practical work part of the day.

Sir Chentung Talks.

Washington, Sept. 25.—When the dispatch containing an account of the explosion of a bomb in a private car was shown to Sir Chentung Liang Cheng, the Chinese minister here, he expressed his horror over the occurrence and said it was doubly unfortunate that it should occur just at this time, when all things seemed so auspicious for China and her government. There is doubt about the perpetrators, or rather as to the party that is responsible for the deed. Then the minister added: "There are two parties in China, the new reform party, which is desirous of having the people and government profit by the adoption of whatever is found good in Occidental civilization and methods, and the party that you call anarchists in this country. The leaders of the latter are really devoid of any principles, whether of government or anything else; envy and jealousy are the mainsprings that actuate their every move. Like your president-killing anarchists, they merely seek to destroy. The late action in regard to the sending abroad of missionaries has especially angered them."

The elections for the boards were held Saturday with strict legality and without any disorder. In almost all the boards the Moderates won."

Firebugs Burn Courthouse.

New Madrid, Mo., Sept. 25.—The courthouse here was burned at an early hour Sunday morning. The fire is thought to have been incendiary. Louise Melrose with "Sandy Bottom" Tuesday, Sept. 26th.

"Sandy Bottom," which comes to the opera house on next Tuesday evening, is one of the leading melodramas of years, which in this day of froth and folly on the stage, affords an evening's entertainment which appeals to all lovers of the higher dramatic art. The piece is one of those pastoral realisms in which the people portray a plain county folk, always so interesting when faithfully produced on the stage. "Sandy Bottom," as it will be seen here, is so realistic that one can almost imagine one's self sniffing the ozone of the Ozark mountains and listening to the quaint manners of speech of the people themselves instead of stage characterizations.
